

US Army Corps
of Engineers
Baltimore District

Baltimore District Fact Sheet

Mission	To operate corporately to deliver innovative and effective solutions to our customers' engineering challenges in a manner consistent with our values and our principles of environmental stewardship
Staff	1,078 civilian employees, average pay grade GS-11, and eight active duty Army officers
Region	23 military installations in Pennsylvania, West Virginia, Maryland, the District of Columbia and parts of northern Virginia; watersheds encompassing nearly 49,000 square miles from southern New York State to northern Virginia and from West Virginia to the Atlantic coast, including the Susquehanna and Potomac Rivers and the Chesapeake Bay north of the Maryland-Virginia line; 7,000 miles of the Chesapeake Bay's environmentally sensitive shoreline; and the nation's capital
Locations	49 field offices throughout a multi-state region and the headquarters in the City Crescent Building, 10 South Howard Street, Baltimore, Md.
Elected officials	12 U.S. senators; 46 U.S. representatives; six governors; numerous state legislators; the mayors of Baltimore, Md., the District of Columbia, Frederick, Md., Ocean City, Md., Scranton, Pa., Wilkes-Barre, Pa., and many smaller cities and towns; and numerous county executives and commissioners
Snapshot of projects	1,294 total	Military projects	653
		Civil Works projects	255
		Environmental projects	291
		Interagency &amp; international services	95
Total Fiscal '06 program	$912 million	Military program	$680 million
		Civil Works program	$ 92 million
		Environmental	$ 39 million
		Interagency &amp; international services	$ 67 million
		Washington Aqueduct	$ 34 million
Ecosystem Restoration	218 acres of wetland habitat were restored or created among three projects in Fiscal Year '06
Flood protection	14 flood control reservoirs and 56 local flood damage reduction projects
Flood damage prevented	Approximately $1.1 billion in Fiscal Year '06
Recreation	More than 13.6 million visitor hours at 11 dams and lakes in Fiscal Year '06
Maintain navigation	750 miles of federally authorized navigation channels maintained
Regulate wetlands	4,886 permit applications received; 4,756 permit actions completed; 614 preapplication consultations performed and 1,699 jurisdictional determinations completed during Fiscal Year '06
Supply drinking water	165 million gallons of drinking water supplied per day by Washington Aqueduct to the District of Columbia, and in Virginia to Arlington County and the Falls Church service area
Respond to emergencies	Natural disasters, such as floods and hurricanes, and other emergencies. During the 2006 calendar year, 87 employees deployed to support missions resulting from the effects of Hurricane Katrina, June 2006 Flash Flooding, and Lake Effect Snow events.
Support to the Global War on Terrorism	14 employees are deployed or scheduled to deploy by March 2007 to Afghanistan or the Gulf Region, bringing the total number of employees who have deployed since 9-11 to 75		